Associations and relationships

MATC is a statutory corporation established to maintain the assets of the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne ('ADOM').

In providing its financial services, MATC is acting for the Anglican Development Fund ('ADF', or 'Fund'), in its capacity as trustee of the ADF.

The ADF is a charitable trust created for the purpose of funding capital projects within ADOM. Your investment with the ADF will be used principally to provide loans to parishes and other related Anglican Institutions that are associates of MATC through ADOM.

No persons other than ADOM will receive a material benefit in connection with the ADF, the administration or management of the assets of the ADF or the provision of investment advice in respect of the ADF. However, investment proceeds received by the ADF may be invested in funds managed by MATC and, as a result, MATC and other third parties associated with the operations of those funds may indirectly benefit from the payment of fees and expenses out of those funds.

Important information that we must disclose to you by law

We are required by law to notify you that investments through the Fund are not subject to the usual protections for investors under the Corporations Act 2001 or regulation by the Australian Securities & Investments Commission (ASIC).

Further, neither the ADF nor MATC are prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) and investments in the ADF are not deposits and do not obtain the benefit of the depositor protection provisions of the Banking Act 1959 (Cth).

We are also required by law to notify you that:

- MATC has an 'Identification Statement', as required by law, which can be accessed at:

Online: www.adfmelbourne.org.au
Email: adf@adfmelbourne.org.au
Phone: +61 3 9653 4220
Mail: ADF Manager
Anglican Development Fund

- an investment in the ADF is designed for persons who wish to promote the charitable purposes of ADOM and for whom the considerations of profit are not of primary relevance to their investment decision;
- there is a risk that investors may be unable to receive some or all of their money back when expected or at all (though we draw your attention to the guarantee provided by ADOM in the Terms and Conditions that apply to your investment); and
- this investment should not be compared with investments with banks, finance companies or fund managers.

The ADF is not prudentially supervised by APRA. Therefore, an investor in the Fund will not receive the benefit of the financial claims scheme or the depositor protection provisions in the Banking Act 1959. Investments in the Fund are intended to be a means for investors to support the charitable purposes of the Fund. Investments in the Fund are guaranteed and secured by the assets of MATC, not just those of the ADF.
